Encore Wallcast® Concert: Symphonic Dances

@ New World Center, 500 17 Street

Saturday, May 20, 8:30 p.m.

Finland's finest return to NWS for classical music's best dances. Debussy incorporates children's folk tunes to usher in a shimmering spring in this pastoral tone poem. In one of the finest designs for cello, Henri Dutilleux's sonorous and enigmatic World demands expert precision and grace throughout its five movements-each based on a poem by Baudelaire. Shortly after fleeing a war-ravaged Europe for America, Rachmaninoff composed his expansive Symphonic Dances. Sprinkling in influences from his new home, he included a nostalgic solo for saxophone and a lurching waltz before its ominous finale.

The Colors of Miami Beach: Part 2

@ Art Deco Welcome Center, 1001 Ocean Drive

May - August, 2017

This exhibit showcases the work of three gay men whose work is inspired by the colors and colorful lifestyles in Miami Beach. Leonard Horowitz is credited with creating the color palette that led to South Beach's revival. In addition to his design work he also produced art that reflected his love of Miami Beach. The two other artists in the show are Decio Sales-Filho and Will McGaul, who are both inspired by Miami Beach in their work.
